RE: In re: Zoloft (Sertraline Hydrochloride) Products Liability Litigation, MDL No. 2342
 Multi-District Coordinator's Report No. 9.

Dear Judge Rufe:

This is the Multi-District Coordinator's Report No. 9 concerning pending Zoloft MDL cases and pending state court cases filed in Alabama, California, Illinois, Missouri, New York, Pennsylvania and West Virginia.

Eastern District of Pennsylvania

There are approximately five-hundred-eighty nine (589) Zoloft cases pending in this MDL Court.

Alabama

One case, Corley, is pending in state court in Alabama before Judge Elisabeth A. French. On January 21, 2014, Judge French entered a scheduling order for discovery and set an August 2015 jury trial.

Honorable Elisabeth A. French
 Circuit Court of Jefferson County, Alabama

California

On February 11, 2014, six Zoloft cases pending in California state court were coordinated in Orange County Superior Court. Two of the six cases – Smith and Williams – were remanded from this Court on November 14, 2013. Four additional Zoloft cases were filed in California state court shortly thereafter, on November 19, 2013.

The California coordinated proceeding has not yet been assigned to a particular judge.

Illinois

There was one case pending in St. Clair County, Illinois, Wilson et al. v. Pfizer, involving eight (8) Plaintiff families. The parties agreed to a voluntarily dismissal of the Wilson action in St. Clair County, and seven (7) of the eight (8) cases have since been refiled in the MDL.

Another case originally filed in St. Clair County (Ratliff v. Pfizer) involving one (1) Plaintiff family with twins, was transferred to this Court on August 15, 2013.

J.H. et al. v. Pfizer, involving seven (7) Plaintiff families, was originally filed in the Circuit Court of Cook County, Illinois, and was remanded by this Court to Cook County on November 13, 2013. The case has been assigned to Judge John P. Callahan, Jr. of the Cook County Law Division. Pfizer and Greenstone have recently filed a motion to dismiss the claims of the out-of-state plaintiff families on forum non conveniens grounds and a motion to sever plaintiffs' claims by plaintiff family. Defendants H.D. Smith and Smith Medical also recently moved to dismiss.

Honorable John P. Callahan, Jr.
Circuit Court of Cook County, Law Division
Daley Center

Chicago, Illinois 60602
Telephone: (312) 603-6062

Additionally, on July 23, 2012, the Honorable G. Patrick Murphy of the Southern District of Illinois granted Plaintiffs' motion to remand in Reeves et al. v. Pfizer, which involved thirty-eight (38) Plaintiff families and was originally filed in St. Clair County, Illinois. Pfizer appealed the remand order to the Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals. The appeal remains pending.

Missouri

Foster, et al. v. Pfizer involves multiple Plaintiff families and is pending before Judge John Garvey in the Circuit Court of St. Louis City, Missouri. Written discovery has been served by the Plaintiffs and responses have been served by Pfizer. On January 9, 2014, the court entered a scheduling order governing discovery and expert disclosures and challenges and set a preemptory trial setting for February 9, 2015. A pre-trial conference was held on February 20, 2014, and a further conference is scheduled for March 27, 2014. The parties are working on a plan regarding discovery and selection of cases for trial.

Honorable John Garvey
Twenty-Second Judicial Circuit of the State of Missouri

Telephone: (314) 622-4841

There are also two cases pending in Cole County Circuit Court in the Celexa/Lexapro coordinated litigation (Jenkins and Griffith) in which Pfizer has also been named as a defendant. The litigation is pending before Judge Patricia Joyce.

Honorable Patricia S. Joyce, Presiding Judge
Nineteenth Judicial Circuit of the State of Missouri
301 East High Street
Jefferson City, MO 65101
Telephone: (573) 634-9178

New York

There is one case pending in Oneida County before Justice Bernadette Clark (the Hernandez case), and written discovery has been served in that case.

There are four cases pending in New York County before Justice Carol E. Huff (Petroci, Jones, Ruckdeschel, and Wolcott). Written discovery has been served in Petroci. On October 8, 2013, Justice Huff granted Pfizer's motion to dismiss the complaint in a fifth case, Weese, on the ground that the plaintiff used a generic version of sertraline made and sold by another company. Plaintiffs have appealed that order. There are no other pending motions in any of the remaining New York County cases.

case) was filed on behalf of six (6) Plaintiff families on October 28, 2013, and was subsequently consolidated with the Cook action.

On December 23, 2013, Pfizer and Greenstone filed a notice of removal of the Cook case to the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of West Virginia. On January 14, 2014, an administrative order was issued by the Supreme Court of Appeals of West Virginia granting a motion to transfer both cases to the Mass Litigation Panel. On February 5, 2014, Judge Robert Chambers of the Southern District of West Virginia issued an order remanding the Cook case to Circuit Court of Wayne County, which automatically transferred the case to the Mass Litigation Panel pursuant to the January 14, 2014, administrative order.

A Status and Scheduling Conference is set to take place before the Mass Litigation Panel on March 4, 2014. The Honorable James P. Mazzone has been assigned to serve as Lead Presiding Judge for the Mass Litigation Panel.
